Come, Lord Jesus! (1 Corinthians 11:23-26; Revelation 22)

- I. The Lord's Supper looks back and remembers Christ's death (1 Cor. 11:23-25).
- II. The Lord's Supper in the present proclaims Christ's death to the living (11:26a).
- III. The Lord's Supper looks forward to Christ's return to setup for His children Heaven on earth—a place free of sin (11:26b).
- IV. The Return of Christ that the Lord's Supper points to is an event that...
 - A. Is currently preceded by the Church Age.
 - B. Will be preceded by the Imminent Rapture/Rescue of the Church.
 - C. Will be preceded by the Rise of the Antichrist and the 7 - Year Tribulation.
 - D. Will be preceded by a Revival among the Jews.
 - E. Will coincide with the Battle of Armageddon.
 - F. Will be followed by the Millennial Reign of Christ.
 - G. Will be followed by the Great White Throne Judgment.
 - H. Will be followed by Heaven descending to a new earth in a new universe where God, all believers, and the angels will live forever.

- V. Revelation 22 declares that the entire process of Christ's coming (detailed above) is _____ (22:6,7,10,12,20).
 - A. This prophecy can be _____ and leaned on for comfort (22:6).
 - B. There is a blessing on those who _____ and live by its guidance (22:7).
 - C. It should inspire _____ (22:8-9).
 - D. Rather than be hidden, it should be greatly _____, because the stakes are so high (22:10).
 - E. It reminds us that we will all _____ and give an account for our lives (22:12).
 - F. It declares that only those who have been _____ by Christ's blood will be granted access to Heaven (22:14-15).
 - G. It is a wakeup call for _____ (22:16).
 - H. It is a prophecy that must not be _____ (22:18-19).
- VI. The response of a non-Christian to Christ's soon Return should be " _____ " (22:17b).
- VII. The response of a Christian to Christs soon Return should be, "Amen. _____!" (22:20, see also 17a).
