Don't Miss the Point (Mark 10:1-12)

- I. The Divine view of Marriage:
 - A. The institution of marriage was created in the beginning by God and His principles governing it have not changed.
 - B. By common grace, each marriage is a divine _____
 1. that is not to be severed by _____.
 2. that is to be pressed even closer starting with the _____.
- C. When the divine oneness is severed by humankind through sexual sin, desertion, or danger—divorce by the innocent party is permissible and remarriage is blessed.
- D. When the original divine principles of marriage are honored, blessings result:
 1. To the _____ spouse
 2. Even to the _____ spouse
 3. To the _____
 4. To _____
- II. Don't miss the point that _____ with God's Word to fit your wants and desires will always result in devastation.
- III. Don't miss the point that in the affairs of mankind, God's Word—_____— is the final authority and the only roadmap to blessing.
