The Significance of the Resurrection

1 Corinthians 15

- I. If Christ had not risen from the dead:
  - A. He was a liar or mistaken and therefore not God and not _____ (15:1-5).
  - B. Your faith in Christ is absolutely a _____ state with all its consequences (15:17).
  - C. You are still in your _____ state with all its consequences (15:17).
  - D. Your Christian loved ones who have passed are _____ in hell (15:18).
  - E. Believers are in a most pitiful state, because they have had their often long-held _____ (15:19).
- II. But since Christ did rise from the dead:
  - A. It proves He was God and that His offer of salvation is _____ (15:1-5; see also Rom. 10:9).
  - B. His resurrection was both representative as well as a guarantee of many more to come (15:20-23).
  - C. Adam represented all humankind and plunged us into physical, spiritual, and eternal death (15:20-23).
  - D. Christ represented all believers and gives us new and eternal life, and guarantees the resurrection of our physical bodies (15:20-23).
  - E. It is certain that believers will one day reign with Christ over all the earth — bringing righteousness, joy, and peace (15:24-25).
  - F. The great _____ of physical death for believers has been removed and Christ will one day destroy death completely (15:26, 54-57).
  - G. Christ's Word can be _____ and our labors for Him are never _____ (15:58).
