Right Thinking About Salvation

Mark 8:31-38

- I. Those who desire to follow Christ to life abundant and eternal—their lives will be characterized by:
  - A. A _____ as the first and final say in their lives.
  - B. A willingness to _____ to the death for Christ and His cause.
  - C. A _____ to the Lord’s commands and teachings.
- II. By avoiding these three a person gives evidence of _____ faith and remains lost in their sins.
  - A. Letting _____ guide him;
  - B. _____ the shame and suffering of being a follower of Christ;
  - C. And _____ what commands and teachings of Christ he would adhere to...
  - D. ...though he gained the whole world, he would lose his soul to hell—what _____ is that?
  - E. Once your soul is forfeited by ignoring Christ and living your own selfish way—you have no means to _____ it.
- IV. An unwillingness to stay true to God as a testimony to all those around you who are unfaithful will result in you being _____ from Christ’s kingdom when He returns to earth in great majesty.

Our Christmas Challenge began on November 16 when our mortgage was $355,000. Our goal is to raise $40,000 over the holiday season through the end of January 2026 to help knockdown our loan to help get us ready for the financing of expanded facilities.

Prayerfully consider if you should contribute. For those who give to the Christmas Challenge—please take a commemorative Christmas Ornament—for a contribution of any amount.

Checks should be made out to Tri County Baptist Church and marked “Christmas Challenge.” You can also give online at www.tricounty.church and look for the “Christmas Challenge” tab.
