Thriving, Despite the Evil (Deuteronomy 6)

I. You can't get away from evil.
   A. It is _____ you (Deut. 6:14; Num. 33:4).
   B. It is _____ (Rom. 7:18).
   C. It is in your _____ (Ps. 51:5).
   D. It has _____ you and your loved ones (Ps. 1:1).

II. But you have a just, powerful, and loving God who has provided the only way to overcome evil and experience divine blessing.
   A. Cultivate a _____ of God (Deut. 6:2).
   B. Intentionally, passionately _____ God above all (6:5).
   C. Continually store, treasure, and trust _____ in your heart (6:6).
   D. Use every waking moment and every opportunity available to _____ to your children about God and the way He's revealed in His Word (6:7-9).
   E. Be careful to never forget _____ to you (6:12).

Class for Parents, Young Adults, Dating taught by Matt & Mary Harmon

Whether you are dating or married, a parent, or simply preparing for a future family, this study will give you clear, biblical tools to strengthen your relationships according to Ephesians 5 and 6. We will dive into the foundational principles of God's word on the family and marriage, and practical ways that we can implement these truths into our family relationships.

Class for Adults

taught by George Prinzing

The men and women highlighted in the Bible were unnervingly real. They faltered. They struggled. And at times they fell short. Yet God worked through them in surprising and incredible ways to accomplish His purposes. Scripture describes these heroes of the faith with unflinching honesty and delivers an unexpected ending: "God is not ashamed to be called their God" (Hebrews 11:16).

Clubs for Kids & Youth

- Gopher Buddies: Designed for preschool and kindergarten children.
- Olympians: Built for elementary school students featuring activity-based learning and character building.
- Fifty1: Tailored for middle school and high school youth with small-group discussions, Bible teaching, and relational discipleship.
