Dear Pastor Bias and church family:

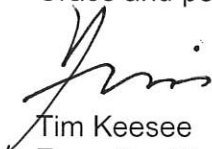

My go-to verse lately has been Psalm 42:8: “By day the Lord commands his steadfast love, and at night his song is with me, a prayer to the God of my life.” What particularly strikes me is that it doesn’t say the Lord “shows” His steadfast love (as gracious as that is), but he “commands” His steadfast love. He is our Captain who oversees and directs everything needed for each of His foot soldiers—there is sovereign strength and specific purpose in this word “commands”!

One of the ways the Lord has directed and commanded His steadfast love toward me is through the encouraging, prayerful notes I have received since writing recently about my cancer journey that started two years ago. These messages have strengthened my heart and quickened my pace in following my Captain. In some of those notes, I have learned of those who have gone through their own path of suffering, and their stories echo with reminders of grace to endure and the quiet joy over songs in the night—songs that turn to prayer to the God who is our life! Thank you for your care and prayers for us.

We praise the Lord that the five Frontline Experience (FX) interns are now in Morocco! God assembled a great team for this summer—please pray for Sarah, Nicole, Derek, Noah, and Nathan as they grow and learn and are mentored by Dwight and Melissa. Pray that they will see specific ways that their Captain has commanded His steadfast love for them there on the frontlines. And I pray the same for you, too!

I am so grateful for how you shoulder this work with us by your Gospel partnership. Thank you for being part of the Lord’s steadfast love toward us and those we serve with in the Gospel’s advance.

Grace and peace,

Tim Keese
