WEDNESDAY EVENING DISCIPLESHIP CLASSES AND WEDNESDAY EVENING SERVICE

CURRENT Spring 2019 COURSE OFFERINGS

Current

Welcome to Current Discipleship Ministry! We call our ministry "Current" because it is the life flow of our church. What does that mean, exactly? It means that while salvation is the first step for a believer, there are more steps that follow in helping a believer become a disciple – a true follower of Christ.

One step is to increase in knowledge and understanding of the Bible – which you can do in a Wednesday evening class, offered each week at OBC.

Another step in spiritual growth only comes from time spent in an informal setting with other believers: from hearing their testimonies, from seeing how they interact with their spouse, their kids, or just other people in general. If this sounds great, then you may be more interested in a life group than a class. We have life groups meeting on and off campus that may appeal to you.

We invite you to step off the periphery and into the current of our church to experience the powerful life that flows here.

For more information on classes or life groups, contact Pastor Jerry Houchens by email at houchensj@obccrapidcity.com.

Four Pillars...Three Tracks... One Purpose...

Our purpose is to equip the saints for LEADERSHIP of ministry, specifically as Pastors, Church Planters and Missionaries.

We understand that in order to increase our effectiveness in spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ, ministry leaders must be trained in Spiritual Formation, Biblical Education, Ministry Experience and Leadership Skills; the four pillars of our school. Legacy School of Ministry's goal is to prepare ministry leaders for whatever and wherever God calls them.

Let us help you answer YES to the call of God on your life!

Freedom

Couples Group

Life as you know it may never be the same. No matter where you are in your faith journey, this curriculum will challenge you to take a step toward truth—about God, about faith, and about yourself.

It is for freedom that Christ set us free. That's what Paul wrote in Galatians 5:1, and Jesus Himself said that He came to the earth so that we may have life and have it to the full (John 10:10). Just imagine that: Life abundant. Not barely surviving, but truly living. It means days filled with hope, joy, and purpose. This is the kind of life God always intended for you to have.

During this semester, you will be the one who decides how far you are willing to go to find freedom. Jeremiah 29:13

The pursuit of Freedom begins today.

Participant Guide $12.00

Prophecy

Past, Future, and Present

This class will examine prophecies that have already occurred such as the first coming of the messiah to the earth. Future prophecy that is in the process of happening now and in the future. Prophecies that are occurring in this present day.

These studies will deal with the soon return of Christ, the Church, and Israel with global impact. We'll be looking at prophetic scriptures from both the old and new testaments in the exciting up to date class.

Revisiting Ecclesiastes

On the surface Ecclesiastes seems to be a book for which we have no clue why it is a part of God's Scripture.

On the surface Ecclesiastes appears dark and ugly. It is certainly not a place we would desire to "revisit."

On the surface it appears King Solomon, his life style, and his conclusions about life are certainly not friendly. It would appear God is quite distant from King Solomon's thoughts.

Yet, reading God's word is like walking with Him in the Garden of Eden – Paradise. As Yeshua said (Luke 24), "Then, then starting with Moshe and all the prophets, he explained to them the things that can be found throughout the Tanakh concerning Himself."
