In you, O Lord, I take refuge; let me never be put to shame.

In your righteousness deliver me and rescue me; incline your ear to me and save me.

Be to me a rock of refuge, a strong fortress, to save me, for you are my rock and my fortress. For you, O Lord, are my hope and my trust.

My praise is continually of you.

*Affirmation of Faith

Lee Anderson-Harris

We believe in the church, the Body of Christ that is active in the world today to bring reconciliation and justice, and to announce the good news of God's love and forgiveness. We believe we should not become conceited, compete against one another, or envy one another. We believe that we should clothe ourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness and patience. We believe that we are called to live lives that are self-controlled, upright and godly, while we wait for the blessed hope and the manifestation of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ.

*Gloria Patri

Glory Be to the Father

MEINEKE

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Pastoral Prayer & The Lord's Prayer

Lee Anderson-Harris

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever.
Amen.

Scripture Lesson

Colossians 3:1-11

Message

"Why I Never!"

Ken Brown

Colossians 3:12 (CEB): Therefore, as God's choice, holy and loved, put on compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience.

"We bring ourselves to the Eucharistic table, entering into that grand fourfold shape of the liturgy that shapes us: taking, blessing, breaking, giving - the life of Jesus taken and blessed, broken and distributed; and that Eucharistic life now shapes our lives as we give ourselves, Christ in us, to be taken, blessed, broken and distributed in lives of witness and service, justice and healing." - Eugene Peterson

Trinity Statement of Inclusion

“Welcome one another, therefore, as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God.” –Romans 15:7

Trinity United Methodist Church, a regional church located in the heart of Denver, has a community mission and historic faith tradition dating back to 1859. Today the church offers welcoming and transforming experiences of worship and service, embracing the Christian message of love for all and upholding the value and uniqueness of each person.

Our inclusion knows no boundaries or conditions. Our intentional hospitality welcomes and values all of God’s people. We see the image of God in every human face. We welcome people of every race, ethnicity, and country of origin; gender identity, marital status, and sexual orientation; faith, culture, and language. We include people of all ages, levels of education, and physical and mental ability; socio-economic class, political affiliation, and life experience; shape, size, and appearance.

We are committed to becoming a more diverse congregation that reflects the composition of our metropolitan community, where members and visitors feel that their presence matters and diversity fosters meaningful and enriching participation. As we strive for deeper understanding of the sacred worth of each person and the holy nature of Christian community, we endeavor to turn our words into deliberate policies, practices, and natural acts of kindness.
