Luke 14:33 – “So therefore, any one of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple.” None of what we have is ours. It all belongs to God. That is the foundation of Christian stewardship. What we have been given is to be used for God's purposes according to our callings in home, Church, and society. As we learn to live generously in these callings, we renounce our ownership of our wealth. It's not “ours,” it's His. God owns everything, and we manage it for the furtherance of His goals.

All women, teens to seniors are welcome to meet for lunch ($5 for pizza, etc., or bring your own) at noon in the Upper Room. After lunch, Life Coach Michelle Pavasars will share some insights into improving our skills so that we can go out and hit those home runs, make touchdowns and score goals ...well actually, she'll be talking about better communication, making good decisions, and ways to face challenges as faithful Christian women. This is a Generation to Generation - LWML-Lutheran Women in Mission event. See JoAnne or Kim if you need more information. We hope to see you at noon.
